

Wells College

Name: _____

Advisor: _____

Major: _____

Graduation Year: _____

Global and International Studies Minor

The global and international studies minor examines the complexity of global forces, factors, factors and values, and the structures of the international world. It focuses on the interconnections among individuals, societies, nation-states and non-governmental organizations and their systems, subsystems and the mechanisms in cultural, social, economic and political processes.

The total number of courses required for the minor is 7 (21 semester hours).

Requirements:

All of the following (9 sem. hrs.)

- ANTH 161 Introduction to Anthropology (3 sem. hrs.)
- INTL 151 Introduction to International Studies (3 sem. hrs.)
- ECON 255 The Political Economy of Globalization (sem. hrs.)

Four additional courses, one from each of the following categories (12 sem. hrs.)

Economics, International Studies, and Political Science

- INTL 385 Topics in International Studies (may be repeated if topic is different) (3 sem. hrs.)
- ECON 209 Introduction to Political Economy (3 sem. hrs.)
- POLS 267 International Organization (3 sem. hrs.)
- POLS 307 Contemporary Political Ideologies (3 sem. hrs.)
- POLS 332 Old and New Paradigms in World Politics (3 sem. hrs.)
- BUS 220 International Business (3 sem. hrs.)

Anthropology, Sociology, and Psychology

- ANTH 359 The Pacific and Cultural Survival (3 sem. hrs.)
- ANTH 345 Maya Ethnography (3 sem. hrs.)
- PSY 349 Cognition and Culture (3 sem. hrs.)
- SOC 277 Social Inequality (3 sem. hrs.)

International Studies

- INTL 350 Comparative Environmental Policy Analysis (3 sem. hrs.)
- PSY 335 Psychology of Environmental Sustainability (3 sem. hrs.)

History, Religion, Philosophy, and the Humanities

- HIST 329 20th Century Europe (3 sem. hrs.)
- HIST 372 Colonial Encounters (3 sem. hrs.)
- HUM 230 Decolonization & Post-Colonial Worlds (3 sem. hrs.)
- PHIL 300 Philosophy of Religion (3 sem. hrs.)
- PHIL 325 Belief and Knowledge (3 sem. hrs.)